Plus, progress on Amsterdam Falafelshop, Plan B Burger and more.

1) Brookland: More changes are in store for formerly Cuban restaurant Little Rickey's. A reader sends a notice to the tipline that they're requesting a liquor license hearing under the name Gin Rummy Group, Inc. [POST-PLYWOOD]

2) Clarendon: Amsterdam Falafel must be getting close to opening in Clarendon; signage is up and they're now hiring. [POST-PLYWOOD]

3) Alexandria: A bistro and wine bar called Sonoma Cellar is headed to 207 King Street, according to Patch. Doesn't appear to be related to the Capitol Hill Sonoma. [PLYWOOD]

4) Georgetown: Georgetown University will get a "reimagined Healey Pub" managed by Bon Appetit Mangement Co., Washington Business Journal reports. [PLYWOOD]

5) Penn Quarter: Burger Days says the upcoming Plan B Burger Bar should open by month's end. [PLYWOOD]

6) Capitol Hill: Capitol Hill Corner shares that Ugly Mug is looking to double its seating and add a retractable roof. [POST-PLYWOOD]
